
Edward D. Lund, Associate AIA

As a Senior Project Manager, Ed Lund has over 32 years of diversified architectural and construction experience. Using his knowledge of construction and building techniques, Ed is very responsive to the unique issues of each project. He works to regulate project costs while maintaining a standard of excellence.

Ed's unique blend of architectural and construction knowledge and experience brings an understanding of the design, construction, operation, and maintenance requirements for each project.

Responsibility

Senior Project Manager /
Cost Control / Estimating

Academic Background

Dunwoody Industrial Institute
Associate Degree in Architectural
Drafting and Estimating, 1974

Memberships

Associate AIA

Charter Member
Historic Preservation Board

Professional Experience

Koch Hazard Architects
2007-Present

Ronning Commercial Construction
Vice President / Director of Commercial
Construction / Physical Plant Director
14 years

Other Firms - 11 years

US Navy
Honorable Discharge
4 years, Vietnam Veteran

Selected Project Experience

- DSU Housing Renovation, Madison, SD
- Volunteers of America, Independent Living and Single Family Housing Centers, Sioux Falls, SD
- Multi-family Housing Projects/Planned Developments (20 townhomes, 54 apartment buildings)
- ELGSS / Village Assisted Living, Sioux Falls, SD
- Fire Station No. 1, Sioux Falls, SD*
- Fire Station No. 3, Sioux Falls, SD*
- Centerville School Library, Centerville, SD*
- USWest Building, Sioux Falls, SD*
- USWest Switch Stations, 231 locations, SD*

*Project completed while employed by other firms