
Press Release Construction begins on First Presbyterian church addition

Owner / Client:
First Presbyterian Church

MILLER, SD, March 29, 2006—The First Presbyterian Church will soon begin construction on a 6,500 square foot addition.

Project Location:
321 W. 1st Ave
Miller, SD 57362

The church needed additional, more accessible fellowship space to accommodate a growing and maturing congregation. The new plan adds space, amenity and convenience to serve the congregation now and into the future. Included with the new fellowship hall are a new kitchen, restrooms, a coat room and a new entry and elevator.

Projected Completion Date:
May 2007

Architect:
KOCH HAZARD ARCHITECTS
Cory Bleyenbug
Project Manager
(605) 336-3718

The addition, designed by Koch Hazard Architects of Sioux Falls, will complement the architecture of the original church building built in 1929.

Contractor:
Mueller Lumber

"This beautiful addition will make our church more accessible and more useful to the congregation and to the community. It will enable us to enhance our ministry to the people of Miller and Hand County," said Pastor Brian Jones of First Presbyterian Church.

Construction will be completed in early 2007.

Koch Hazard Architects is an architecture, planning and interiors firm providing services within the region to produce innovative design and effective delivery of quality projects.

###

Before (current)

After (Rendering)